

DISABILITY SUPPORT

Choosing PresCare to help you achieve your goals and aspirations

Flexible support services that are more you!

PresCare promotes independence.

Our qualified staff provide an extensive range of flexible support services that give people living with a disability access to everything they need to help them lead full and productive lives in their homes and workplaces, and remain connected with their communities.

Support shifts are designed around individual needs, schedules and lifestyles, and you can choose from support services such as these:

Learn new skills, maintain your independence and stay connected with your community. Our team can help you with:

- Daily living skills like cleaning your home, shopping and cooking.
- Financial skills, such as money handling and learning how to budget.
- Travel training, including how to use public transport and developing confidence while in transit.
- Study and work options.
- Social engagement skills and support, such as joining a hobby group.
